DESERT SPRINGS CANCER CARE CENTER NOW OPEN

Desert Springs Cancer Care Center, the first medical oncology practice located north of Loop 101 in Scottsdale and first green-built facility in Arizona, is now open. The 5,000 square-foot outpatient clinic's traditional patient services include: medical oncology and hematology consultations; chemotherapy and all therapeutic infusions; and on-site pharmacy and laboratory. The practice will also offer lymphedema therapy, organic manicures and pedicures, classes on patient nutrition and skin care, yoga, on-site wig and prosthetic services and a boutique with vitamins, jewelry, fashion, make-up and more.

Drs. Andrew Buresh and Lesley Meng own and operate the clinic, a dream they've been working toward for the past year.

"We modeled our clinic and patient service philosophy after the Four Seasons rather than a traditional medical practice," said Buresh, who is also a published researcher in the cancer field. "We treat our patients in a state-of-the-art, green-designed suite, planned with a sustainable approach with the patient's comfort and convenience in mind."

Some of the sustainable properties include: automatic lighting and CFLs; tinted and shaded windows; low water usage plumbing and 100% copper piping; low odor/zero VOC paint and more.

"We believe that each of us needs a sense of dignity, pride, and satisfaction in what we do. We demonstrate our beliefs and passion for outstanding cancer care in the way we treat our patients and each other, and by the example we set for one another," said Meng, who was recently named one of the top oncologists in America. "Our goal is simple – to treat patients the same way we would want one of our family members to be treated.”

Desert Springs Cancer Care Center is located on the northeast corner of Scottsdale and Deer Valley Roads. The address is 21803 N. Scottsdale Road in Scottsdale, and the clinic is open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. seven days a week. Desert Springs Cancer Care Center accepts most forms of insurance.
