ARIZONA ASSOCIATION FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROMOTES WALKER TO DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND OPERATIONS

The Arizona Association for Economic Development (AAED) is pleased to announce that Bridgette Walker has been promoted to the position of director of marketing and operations.

Prior to her promotion, she served as manager of business operations for AAED.

Walker is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she graduated with honors, earning a bachelor of arts in public relations and business.

“Bridgette is very bright and wonderful to have on our team,” said Bruce Coomer, executive director of AAED. “She has proven to be a great asset to the organization, and will continue to do outstanding work in her new role.”

A native of Raleigh, N.C., Walker is a resident of Ahwatukee.

AAED was originally founded in 1974 as the Arizona Association for Industrial Development (AAID). The organization, which was dedicated to expanding the industrial and economic base of Arizona, changed to its current name in 1991 to better reflect its broader mission.

The strategic vision of AAED is to be the leading advocate of responsible economic development for all of Arizona by leading the facilitation of public/private cooperation and fostering teamwork to address the growth and quality of life issues that face Arizona.
