ARIZONA ASSOCIATION FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT APPOINTS JAYNE TO DIRECTOR OF MEMBERSHIP

The Arizona Association for Economic Development (AAED) is pleased to announce that Deb Jayne has been appointed to the position of director of membership.

An AAED member since June 2008, Jayne was previously involved in the membership, events and public relations committees.

“Deb’s understanding of our organization will be a tremendous asset in her new position,” said Bruce Coomer, executive director of AAED.

A native of Oregon City, OR, Jayne moved to the Valley of the Sun in 2007.

AAED was originally founded in 1974 as the Arizona Association for Industrial Development (AAID). The organization, which was dedicated to expanding the industrial and economic base of Arizona, changed to its current name in 1991 to better reflect its broader mission.

The strategic vision of AAED is to be the leading advocate of responsible economic development for all of Arizona by leading the facilitation of public/private cooperation and fostering teamwork to address the growth and quality of life issues that face Arizona. For more information on AAED, visit www.aaed.com or call (602) 240-2233.
