ARIZONA ASSOCIATION FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT MOVES INTO NEW OFFICE SPACE

The Arizona Association for Economic Development (AAED) has announced its move to a new office. It is located at 3033 N. Central Ave., Suite 615 in Phoenix.

The new space features a larger conference room, which will allow AAED to host all meetings on site.

“We are very excited to have moved into this office,” said Bruce Coomer, executive director of AAED. “It will allow us to work more efficiently as an organization, as well as accommodate more people in the way of meeting space.”

AAED was originally founded in 1974 as the Arizona Association for Industrial Development (AAID). The organization, which was dedicated to expanding the industrial and economic base of Arizona, changed to its current name in 1991 to better reflect its broader mission.

The strategic vision of AAED is to be the leading advocate of responsible economic development for all of Arizona by leading the facilitation of public/private cooperation and fostering teamwork to address the growth and quality of life issues that face Arizona. For more information on AAED, visit www.aaed.com or call (602) 240-2233.
